CASE NUMBER: 20CR36 (EDWI) and 20CR24 (WDWI)

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years as to counts two and four (EDWI 20-CR-36) and five (5) years as to count two (WDWI 20-CR-24) which shall run concurrent to each other for a total term of five (5) years supervised release.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess or use a controlled substance.
  - You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court. (check if applicable)
  - The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
3.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3363 and 3363A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
4.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: JUSTIN L. HARRIS

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
2. You shall not leave the district in which he is supervised without permission of the court or probation officer.
3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
4. You shall use your best efforts to support your dependents.
5. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
6. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
7. You shall not knowingly go to places or enter buildings where controlled substances are unlawfully sold, used, distributed, or administered.
8. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
9. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
10. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
11. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

DEFENDANT: JUSTIN L. HARRIS

CASE NUMBER: 20CR36 (EDWI) and 20CR24 (WDWI)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant is to participate in a program of testing to include not more than six urinalysis tests per month and residential or outpatient treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as approved by the supervising probation officer, until such time as he or she is released from such program. The defendant shall pay the cost of this program under the guidance and supervision of the supervising probation officer. The defendant is to refrain from use of all alcoholic beverages throughout the supervised release term.
2. The defendant is to pay restitution at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month or 10% of his or her net earnings, whichever is greater. The defendant will also apply 100 percent of his or her yearly federal and state tax refunds toward the payment of restitution. The defendant shall not change exemptions without prior notice of the supervising probation officer.
3. The defendant shall not open new lines of credit, which includes the leasing of any vehicle or other property, or use existing credit resources without the prior approval of the supervising probation officer. After the defendant's court-ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
4. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, papers, computers, other electronic communications or data storage devices, or media, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the offender has violated a condition of their release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
5. The defendant is to provide access to all financial information requested by the supervising probation officer including, but not limited to, copies of all federal and state tax returns. All tax returns shall be filed in a timely manner. The defendant shall also submit monthly financial reports to the supervising probation officer.
6. The defendant shall have no contact with the victim businesses or its employees in this matter (including letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, or any contact through a third party) without prior written consent of his probation officer, and shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1,000 feet of the victim businesses.
7. The defendant shall participate in the Cognitive Intervention Program, if available, and under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer.
